

NEW RELATIONSHIP TRUST

INVESTING IN FIRST NATIONS IN BRITISH COLUMBIA

New Relationship Trust BC First Nation Youth Grant Initiative 2018/19 Guidelines

The New Relationship Trust realizes the importance of our youth and has identified youth funding as a strategic priority. Our youth provide the key to a healthy and vital future. The ongoing support and participation of this group is essential to strong, healthy Nations. NRT will begin to accept completed applications on April 12th, 2018. Applications will be accepted until funds are exhausted.

The New Relationship Trust allocated $250,000 for 2018-2019 to assist British Columbia (BC) First Nation youth in their communities.

Who Can Apply?

The Youth Grant Initiative is available to BC First Nations youth groups at the community level.

Initiative Objectives

The purpose of this initiative is to provide incentive for First Nations youth groups to implement projects or attend youth conferences that promote capacity development.

The purpose of this initiative is to build capacity, which is defined as enhancing knowledge, abilities, skills and processes in areas as:

- Leadership
- Team building
- Mentorship
- Language & Culture

Examples of Ineligible Expenses or Projects

- Projects currently funded under another NRT initiative with an outstanding final report
- Tuition, fees and school related costs
- Administration costs and overhead costs
- Honorariums or existing staff wages or salaries

Maximum Initiative Contributions

The maximum amount available is $2,000 per First Nations Youth Group. Only one project per First Nation and/or community will be funded per year.

Application Checklist (please submit all documentation in application):

- Completed and Signed Application Form
- Provide a description of project (attached/typed) how funding will build capacity, leadership and/or mentorship for BC First Nation Youth at the community level. Description should be no more than 2 pages.
- Budget breakdown of all expenses to complete the project
- Letter of support from the local BC First Nation or First Nation Government on letterhead

Approval / Evaluation Process

Applications will be reviewed by the NRT Selection Committee and must meet all project requirements.

Reporting Requirements

If successful in your application, your Youth group will be required to submit a final report with participant and all financial information. The name of two contact persons is also required for follow-up at the completion of your funded project.

The narrative report will discuss how the Youth built capacity and leadership in your community. Other materials including pictures, participant and project evaluations are also encouraged and may be published in the NRT Newsletter.

Deadline Date

Youth Grants awarded are ongoing until funds are exhausted.

Applications and proposals can be delivered by fax, email or dropped off in person to:
