

NEW RELATIONSHIP TRUST

INVESTING IN FIRST NATIONS IN BRITISH COLUMBIA

New Relationship Trust 2021-2022 First Nations K-12 Education Grant Initiative

K-12 EDUCATION GRANT INITIATIVE

The New Relationship Trust (NRT) Board of Directors has committed to funding BC First Nations to deliver Kindergarten to Grade 12 (K-12) programs for 2021-2022 are offered at the community level. K-12 grants provide funding to BC First Nations and First Nations schools to deliver educational programs and promote student achievements.

WHO CAN APPLY?

- BC First Nation communities and First Nation schools.
- NRT will be approving one application per BC First Nation. If a BC First Nation applies for funding, the First Nations school in the same community are not eligible for funding.
- Nations that received K-12 funding from the NRT or the NRT Foundation in the last fiscal year are required to submit their 2020-2021 final report before applying for new funding.

FUNDING AMOUNT The maximum amount available is $8,000.00 per BC First Nation or School.

FUNDING CRITERIA

- Academic Programs that will enhance the child/youth experience in supporting their educational journey.
- Indigenous Culture area of programming that will keep the culture, language, history instilled in our child/youth everyday learning of who they are and where they come from.
- Applications are required to have a letter of Support attached from your First Nation's office e.g., Executive Director, Administrator, Education coordinator, and must on a Nation letterhead. If a school is applying a letter from the Education department from the school on letterhead is required.

- A Final Report must be submitted once project has been completed or by last day of school June 28, 2022

Examples of Eligible Expenses:

- Education Projects (reading and literacy workshops, enhancing education through technology, homework clubs with tutors).
- Purchase Education Supplies (science equipment, textbooks, educational computer games.)
- Purchasing of electronic devices such as iPad, tablets, syncing machines.
- Aboriginal Parents as Literacy Supporters (APALS).

Examples of Ineligible Expenses:

- Administrative & Overhead Costs.
- Corporate/Business Projects.
- Honorariums/Gifting students.
- First Nations staff salaries or teachers attending conferences/workshops.
- Operating costs for new or previous programs.
- Field trips are not covered.

FINAL REPORT REQUIREMENTS

Final Report Deadline: Last day of school June 28, 2022.

Funded projects will be required to submit a final report following the completion of the project. When submitting your written final K-12 report, please include the following:

- A project description matching the one in your proposal.
- Description of how many students were involved and affected by the project;
- Description of how the New Relationship Trust was recognized as a K-12 Education Grant sponsor for the project; and
- A complete budget that details how the New Relationship Trust Foundation K-12 Education Grant funds cost to complete.

APPLICATION DEADLINE

Grants will be awarded until funds are exhausted.

HOW TO APPLY

Submit completed application form along with required supporting documents to one of the following:

Mailing Address:

New Relationship Trust
First Nations K-12 Education Grant Initiative
3188 Alder Court
North Vancouver, BC
V7H 2V6
Attention: Lana Plante, Project Officer Email lplante@nrtf.ca
Fax 604-925-3348