

Chief Executive Officer

New Relationship Trust (NRT)
North Vancouver, British Columbia

An extraordinary opportunity for a dynamic, visionary and strategic Chief Executive Officer to lead an independent non-profit organization dedicated to strengthening First Nations in British Columbia. NRT invests in BC First Nations by supporting them in five key capacity development areas: Governance Capacity, Education, Language, Youth and Elders and Economic Development.

This CEO will lead the NRT through a new period of renewal and growth. An excellent understanding of the First Nations needs and gaps in British Columbia will allow for the development of a new ten-year plan for and by First Nations to help in Nation rebuilding.

The CEO supports the NRT's vision both internally and in relationships with First Nations and government stakeholders. The CEO oversees senior staff to ensure seamless handling of the NRT's funds in support of the goals, objectives, and mandate of the organization. The CEO ensures strong performance and growth of the organization, develops and achieves work plans and objectives that support and implement the Board's motions and directives. He/she will be accountable for internal matters such as corporate administration and investment of funds as well as external matters such as First Nations and government relations and allocation of funds. The CEO leads, directs, coordinates and manages all operations, and administrative matters of the NRT, including staff, budgets, administration, strategic advice, policies and procedures, achievement of goals and objectives and implementation of NRT initiatives. For complete details please refer to the Job Description and Statement of Qualifications at www.newrelationshiptrust.ca

If you are interested in joining the NRT's executive management, please send your CV and cover letter outlining how your qualifications would make you the ideal candidate for the position to ceosearch@nrtf.ca . Please include "Chief Executive Officer Position" in the subject line of your email. Closing date for applications is 5:00 pm PT January 31, 2020.

We thank all applicants for their interest; however, only those under consideration for the role of CEO will be contacted.
