Ongoing Applications

Elders Grants

Grants of up to $2,000 are available for BC First Nations Elders' groups and organizations, as well as BC First Nations communities representing Elders.

Youth & Language Youth Grants

Project grants of up to $2,000 are available for First Nations youth groups and organizations in BC. Priority is given to projects that demonstrate capacity building, leadership or mentorship for BC First Nations youth.

Youth groups may apply for First Nations language revitalization projects which incorporate youth, elders and language revitalization up to $2,000.

Nations Council Funding

Funding that supports Nations Councils/Tribal Councils in BC with projects that move them to becoming self-determining Nations.

The NRT Foundation is a charitable non-profit society that was created in 2011 by the New Relationship Trust. The NRT Foundation was created to assist Indigenous people in BC separately and collectively to meet their education goals.

Bursaries

NRT Foundation Bursaries support Indigenous students attending a recognized post-secondary institution. Bursaries are available for Certificate, Diploma, Associate Degrees, and/or Trades at $2,000 each.

Economic Development Support Team (EDST)

Now in the fourth year, this pilot project assists First Nations in BC to participate in economic projects within their territories. Support is provided via a resource team of Indigenous business specialists who assist and advise participating First Nations communities as they explore viable business opportunities. Types of support may include developing consultation and accommodation strategies, helping with negotiations and assistance with implementing business deals.

EDST is created in partnership with Western Economic Diversification Canada.
